LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES, April 27, 1882.

For the Middle Atlantic States light rain, followed by clearing weather, northwesterly winds, higher barometer, stationary temperature.

REPAIRS IMPROVEMENTS IN ALEXANDRIA.

During the past three months, over thirty buildings have been commenced in this city. Many of these have been completed, and others are in course of construction. The list embraces the following: Two houses on upper Prince street for J. T. Hill, built by Cook & Kinlow; two on Henry street for Mrs. Taylor, by Alexander Lyles; one on Columbus street, between Duke and Wolfe, by Hugh Fegan and S. P. Stoutenburg; by S. P. Stoutenburg; two for J. H. D. Scott, on Cameron street, between Fairfax and Lee, by Alexander Lyles; one for John Padgett, on Alfred street, between Cameron and Queen, by Jones & Stoutenburg; one on Columbus street, between Wilke's and Gibson, by John Shelby, by Edward Churchill, on Franklin street, for Henry Pacey, by Charles Glover; one on same corner, by Richard Warden; four on St. Asaph street, between Queen and Princess, for John Lannon, by Wm. Gibson; two on Prince street, between Washington and St. Asaph, for P. N. Dwyer, by Thomas Scott, on Wolfe street, between Royal and Fairfax, by Thomas Scott; one on St. Asaph street, near Porter's brewery, for R. F. F. Dudley; one on Washington street, opposite Porter's brewery, for R. F. F. Dudley; two on Alfred street, between King and Prince, for Messrs. Helms, by R. F. F. Dudley; one on Fairfax street, between Cameron and Queen, for Mrs. R. Brown, by George W. Jones; one on upper King street, for W. D. Hudson, by Geo. W. Jones; one on upper King street, for William Rogers, by Edward Church; one on Duke street, between Fayette and Payne, for Thomas Gorman, by George W. Jones. Many of these buildings, all dwellings, are large, and greatly improve the neighborhood in which they are located. Besides those mentioned above, drawings have been made for a number of residences for different citizens, work on which will be commenced at an early day. The Mount Vernon Building Association will shortly commence the erection of two fine dwellings on Fairfax street, between Duke and Prince, to be taken by Messrs. William Hall and Edward Warfield; Wm. Gibson has received the contract for the carpenter's work and Clark & Harrison for the brick work. It is said by many that the close of the present building season will show more new buildings than any previous season for years, which argues well for the city. The demand for small houses is great, which is also considered a good sign. A gentleman who has charge of four small dwellings just completed, and this morning that for two of the houses he had thirty five applicants, and for the other two over fifty.

UNIVERSITY LOCAL EXAMINATION.

J. W. Gore, esq., Assistant Professor of Mathematics in the University of Virginia, assisted by Capt. K. Kemper and Charles L. Powell, esq., of this city as a Local Committee, began the above examination in the school class room at St. John's Academy this morning at 9 o'clock. Thirteen young men presented themselves to be examined, as follows:

David H. Jones, Mount Jackson, Va.; J. E. Swaine, Alexandria, Va.; Parry Lee, Jr., Baltimore, Md.; William A. Bennett, Gordonsville, Va.; Westley W. Willoughby, Alexandria, Va.; Benjamin White, Loudoun county, Va.; Frank F. DeLo, Chicago, Ill.; Ballard E. Dood, Norfolk, Va.; Willie F. Willoughby, Alexandria, Va.; James P. Quinn, Alexandria, Va.; George Kerby, Alexandria, Va.; R. E. Lee Martin, Baltimore, Md.; J. Albert Field, Alexandria, Va. The twelve first named are cadets at the Academy, the last a pupil of Washington School.

The exercises this morning consisted in solving a number of problems in arithmetic chiefly in fractions, decimals and proportion; in analyzing and parsing a prose and a poetical selection; in writing from dictation, to test spelling and pronunciation; and in reading aloud a passage from Christopher North.

Three hours and a half were allowed, the preliminary, as it is called, closing at a quarter to one. At two, problems in algebra and geometry were placed on the black-boards—the solution of which will occupy the time until half-past five. To-morrow morning, the examination on Shakespeare, geography and history will take place, and to-morrow afternoon that on chemistry.

FUNERAL OF MRS. TRIST. The funeral of Mrs. Virginia Jefferson Trist, whose death occurred in this city yesterday morning, took place this afternoon at 4 o'clock from the residence of her son-in-law, John W. Burke, esq., Rev. Mr. Suter, of Christ, Episcopal Church officiated, and the pall bearers were Col. Arthur Herbert, Maj. W. W. Herbert, Col. Julian T. Burke, Capt. Herbert Bryant, H. Gratton Dulaney, esq., and J. W. Maitry, esq. The remains were interred in Ivy Hill Cemetery. Mrs. Trist, the daughter of Thos. Man Randolph, was the almost last near descendant of Virginia's distinguished statesman, Thomas Jefferson, who was her grand father. The funeral, conducted by Mr. Wm. Demain, was attended by a large number of friends of the deceased. The remains were encased in a splendid black cloth casket, on the top of which was a silver plate, bearing the name, time and place of birth, and time and death of the aged lady. The floral tributes were many and beautiful.

THE COMING CITY ELECTION.—The Convention Committee will meet to-night in the office of the City Treasurer to make arrangements for the primary election, which is to take place on the 4th of May, to select candidates to be voted for at the general election, at which the offices of Clerk of the Corporation Court, City Sergeant, and constable and magistrate for each ward are to be filled. There will be no opposition to Col. Marve, present clerk of Court, Capt. Wm. H. Smith, City Sergeant, nor Mr. M. R. Harlow, City Treasurer, it is thought, either in the primary or general election, but Mr. S. G. Brent the present Commonwealth's Attorney, will be opposed in the primary election by Mr. Leonard Marbury.

RIVER TRADE.—Inspector G. W. Hawxhurst reports the following arrivals at the river front to-day:—Schooner George H. Root, of Baltimore, A. J. Herbert master, with lumber for Perry Smoot & Co.; steamer Harry Loder, H. S. Mountjoy master, with passengers and freight. At the fish wharf: Mary Rebecca, Geo. Hendricks, Charles Lewis, Annie Gibson, Kitty Ann and Mary Elizabeth.

COUNTY COURT.—The closing session of the April term of the County Court, Judge James Sangster presiding, was held at the Court House, in this city, to-day. The only business transacted was the issuing of licenses to county parties, at the conclusion of which the Court adjourned till court in course. The Circuit Court for the county will not hold a term till the 3rd Monday in May.

WRAPPING PAPER!

WOODBINE MILLS!

LABEL REGISTERED.

GUARANTEED FULL COUNT

February 5th, 1878.

IS SHEET TO THE QUIRE.

STRAW WRAPPING, to be full (Standard) count, should have 18 sheets in each Quire, and 20 Quires to each bundle.

There is much paper now being sold with only 17 sheets to the quire, and in some cases as few as 12 sheets. These facts are not known to the consumer; the paper being low in price, they do not think of the number of sheets they get in a bundle.

Count your PAPER. Ask for "WOODBINE" and take nothing else, as this brand is Guaranteed to be FULL (Standard) count, and so is far cheaper to the consumer than a lower priced paper, put up with less sheets to the Quire.

Ask the firm you buy of to give you WOODBINE MILLS Wrapping, and take nothing else, as this paper is the cheapest in the market.

COUNT, QUALITY, WEIGHT AND COLOR considered. If you cannot get it of the firm you deal with, try elsewhere. Do not be induced to buy any paper but the WOODBINE MILLS.
